Amari Kai Company

Press Release

The Ledger improperly connects Amari Kai Company and its CEO, Eddie Cason to Abraham Shakespeare's murder suspect.

Eddie Cason asks the Ledger for a retraction of story and clarification of his company's connection to Abraham Shakespeare. Amari Kai never received money from Shakespeare; Eddie Cason never met the murder suspect.

Lakeland, FL, February 5, 2010: Eddie Cason - the CEO of Amari Kai Company, whom applied for a $47,500 commercial business loan from Community Bank in Lakeland, was asked by their Financial Center Manager to add Abraham Shakespeare name as President of Amari Kai Company, in order to approve the loan. The loan was processed on Feb. 4, 2008 and matured on April 21, 2008 and cost $715.38 at a 7.014% APR. Amari Kai Company never received funding from Abraham Shakespeare, only from Community Bank in Lakeland.

The Lakeland news paper, The Ledger, reported Eddie Cason and his company Amari Kai entangled with Abraham Shakespeare and his murder suspect "Dee Dee" Moore. See entangled web link at www.theledger.com.

Eddie Cason, whom never met "Dee Dee" Moore and only business relationship with Abraham Shakespeare was through Community Bank, requested on Thursday, Feb. 4, 2010, that the Ledger properly clarify their depiction of his company's relationship to the murdered millionaire Abraham Shakespeare.
